

DRESS CODE FOR CDC
Approved by the DECA Board of Directors – August, 1993

From the opening session until the end of the closing session, students, advisors and professionals shall adhere to the following Dress Code requirements. It is the Chapter Advisor's responsibility to see that their students, professionals and themselves comply with the rules established for proper dress code. Advisors should monitor their students' dress at all functions. Professional business dress should be worn to all events where a judge or observer may be in attendance. This will include participating events as well as testing. Business representatives, hotel staff, and guests will be seeing DECA's finest members – show them a professional business image.

Professional Business Attire

Females:

- 1a. Blazer/business suit with dress blouse or
- 1b. Skirt or dress slacks with dress blouse or dress sweater or
- 1c. Business dress and
2. Dress shoes (pumps, heels or flats; no tennis shoes or flip-flop sandals) and stockings

Males:

- 1a. Business suit with collared dress shirt and necktie or
- 1b. Sport coat/dress slacks, collared shirt and necktie and
2. Dress shoes (no tennis shoes or flip-flop sandals) and socks

Any medical exceptions to this code must be documented in the conference headquarters prior to the beginning of the conference. This is the responsibility of the local advisor.